SOMMELIER'S SELECTION

WHITE

Plush and full-bodied with a touch of spice and sweetness, this Pinot Gris from local négociant duo Pearce Predhomme is a far cry from its Northern Italian kin, Pinot Grigio. An undercurrent of minerality reveals the wine's origins in the ancient soils of Willamette Valley. This wine is a chameleon at the table and will reward adventurous pairings.

RED

The mother-daughter trio behind Cambria Wines tend vines in their infinitely sunny little patch of Santa Barbara County. Every last bit of flavour and fragrance is coaxed from the grapes and captured in bottle. Fans of Meiomi will find this wine a seductive education in the more serious side of Pinot Noir.

BUBBLES

A bubbly for all occasions, Cuvée Catharine honours the matriarch of the Henry of Pelham Estate Winery. With a soft blush colour and vibrant rose, citrus and apple notes, it is a classic example of a Niagara sparkling. The extended lees aging adds warmth and complexity to contrast the wine's verve and freshness.
