WHITE

The Viognier grape is famous in Northern Rhône in the appellation of Condrieu, but Château Pesquié creates a stunning, rich and aromatic Viognier grown in Southern Rhône's Ventoux Mountains. Balanced with a beautiful acidity, this wine pairs fantastically with seafood or fish. Aromas of apricot, pear and white flowers follow through on the palate.

Château Pesquié 'La Paradou' Viognier, Rhône, FR 2017 58

RED

The Grenache grape hails from Spain, where it is known as Garnacha, but arrived in France in the Middle Ages. Grenache flourishes in the warm climate found in Southern Rhône, where Château Pesquié over-delivers on a medium to full-bodied red wine with light tannins and notes of black pepper, black cherry and blackberry.
